Research Club hosted its second annual Research Convention on Oct 12th. The convention promoted student research projects and featured professors from local universities including Rutgers, NJIT, and Stevens. The over 100 students who attended heard keynote presentations from professors about their research in various fields including medicine, generative AI, and naval engineering.

Always try to be
1% better than you
were the day before!
You are in competition with NO ONE but yourself.
Be a better you ♡

Students and staff observed both the Week of Respect and School Violence Awareness Week this past month. Messages of respect and understanding were emphasized and reinforced through activities and Spirit Days.

Seniors visited The New Jersey Institute of Technology (NJIT) on October 17th. They were given guided tours of the Honors College and the Makerspace.

AP Exam Registration is open until Monday, November 11th. Students must register through their College Board account and pay for any exams on My School Bucks by the deadline. Complete instructions are here.

Photos and plaques celebrating Edison Academy and its students now adorn the walls in the Main Office and throughout the building. Please observe next time you visit!

We are now accepting nominations for Teacher of the Year and Educational Services Professional of the Year. Please see the email sent earlier this week for the nomination form and additional information.
